

Free Youth Music Education Program

Olivet Congregational Church is beginning a Youth Music Education Program that is free and open to all community youth. Classes are scheduled at the church (125 College St.) on Wednesdays from September 13th through May 16th as follows:

Grades 6-12, 3:00-3:45
Grades K-5, 4:00-4:45 p.m.

The program's focus will be on music education, with each session including singing, musical games, and computer-based learning. Movement is included in grades K-5 and hand bell instruction in grades 6-12. Students may occasionally participate in church services (optional).

Youth Music instructor is Dr. Penny Draper, Minister of Music at the church. Dr. Draper has founded and directed Youth Music Classes at Plymouth Congregational Church in Lansing, and also directs both the Junior Renaissance Singers (K-8) and The Renaissance Singers of mid-Michigan. She has served as a choir director in the Williamston and East Lansing Public Schools and has a degree in choral education from Michigan State University.

For more information, contact the church office at 269-749-2631.

There will be a bus drop off after school at the church for Olivet students. 4th grade thru 12th grades will be dropped off on the corner of College and Church Streets (1 block from the church.) K-3rd grade will be dropped off at the church. If you need this service please contact your school office for a bus slip.
